Foreword
The PILDAT Annual Report 2009-2010 covers the period from July 01, 2009 - June 30, 2010. During the year, PILDAT has continued the focus of its activities upon review of the public policies relating to vital issues the society has been facing. The subjects of concern were deliberated well in detail by the experts and professionals in the relevant field in a transparent manner so that everybody could benefit from the discussions and opinions so expressed and so formulated.

PILDAT formed a Democracy Assessment Group to carry out an objective assessment of the performance of democracy in Pakistan using an international framework. The objectives of democracy assessment are that since democracy is restored in Pakistan, the society must strive to improve and strengthen it. It is a collective responsibility of all segments of the society that democracy must deliver and succeed because the poor quality of democracy may disappoint people, lead to yet another failure and derailment of democracy. The PILDAT's initiative is an effort to make democracy deliver and work. The assessment process is a tool to promote democratic reform. It is not meant just to assess the Government alone but assess the entire society. The PILDAT Democracy Assessment initiative does not end at commentary or analysis, the process is directed at identifying and lobbying for reforms using the collective influence for strengthening the democracy. The initiative seeks to open a dialogue with the government before any reforms are made public and enforced, the government should hear the other side and incorporate their valuable proposals so that an ownership could be established on the reform agenda by the entire society.

PILDAT continues working together with veteran Parliamentarians across parties, including the current legislative and executive leadership, to improve the Parliamentary functioning, particularly with reference to civil-military relations, oversight of the security and defense sector and to take charge of the budget scrutiny by effectively activating the Parliamentary Committees. The Parliamentary Committees can contribute in this regard by meaningful input, control, scrutiny and oversight of the processes by the public representatives. These Committees should endeavor for promotion of constitutionalism and rule of law.

The PILDAT’s Citizens Group on Electoral Process (CGEP) presented the proposals on required Electoral Reforms in Pakistan to the Prime Minister of Pakistan, Syed Yusuf Raza Gilani and Justice (Retd.) Hamid Ali Mirza, Chief Election Commissioner of Pakistan. The Prime Minister assured the CGEP of the consideration of all electoral reform proposals. The CGEP believes Electoral Reforms require changes in laws, rules and practices and therefore meaningful reform can only be brought in at this stage. Three key reform proposals of CGEP have been made part of the Constitution through the 18th Constitutional Amendment including the process of appointment of the Chief Election Commissioner, composition of the Election Commission and Caretaker Governments.

The Ministry of Narcotics Control, Government of Pakistan, sought the cooperation of PILDAT in involving various segments of the society in reviewing the Draft National Anti-Narcotics Policy 2010, proposed to be announced by the Ministry, and giving feedback before its finalization to consider and incorporate the collected feedbacks in the final version of the policy. This was the first time that a Federal Government Ministry sought input from the civil society on a draft national policy prior to its announcement. This goes to the credit of the PILDAT that such a contribution was sought through it. PILDAT involved the broader Pakistani society including parliamentarians, politicians, media, administrative services of the Government of Pakistan and Provincial Governments, civil society organizations, opinion-leaders, intellectuals and the youth in re-shaping the new Anti-Narcotics Policy. The consultations thus organised also helped in raising public awareness about the menace of narcotics-trafficking and its nexus with organised crime especially the violence and terrorism.

During the year, PILDAT was instrumental in organizing study visits of parliamentarians, opinion makers, intellectuals, academia and other experts to Turkey and UK. These visits were arranged essentially to learn from others experiences particularly in the fields of civil military relations, deepening and sustaining democracy, handling conflict ridden situations, strengthening accountability in political process and other related areas.
The Youth Parliament of Pakistan, a PILDAT initiative since 2007 to inculcate the values of democracy, tolerance and dialogue in Youth of Pakistan and to instill the centrality and importance of Parliament in a democracy, initiated and worked towards completion of its third successful year with a third batch of Youth Parliament members from across Pakistan.

As always, a snapshot of our work during the years, and our accounts, are shared with you through this report. We hope you find these useful.

Mission Statement

“PILDAT will work for strengthening democracy and democratic institutions in Pakistan by building the capability of and instituting non-partisan monitoring framework for the elected representatives and legislatures while facilitating greater participation of all segments of the society in the democratic process and development of new political leadership”
Activities During the Reporting Period
Dialogue on Civil-Military Relations

Recognizing the importance of civil-military relations for the future of democracy, PILDAT established a dialogue process in 2004 on reviewing civil-military relations and exploring the prospects of improving them with the objective of promoting constitutionalism and democracy. The basic objective of the dialogue process has been to enable the civil and the military to understand each other’s perspectives and to address the contentious issues that cause strains in civil-military relations and hinder consensus-building, democratization, stability and security.

PILDAT’s programme of Dialogue on Civil Military Relations continued during the reporting period and held several sittings. A brief description of the dialogue sittings is as follows:

Twenty First Sitting: The Dialogue Group on Civil-Military Relations

The Dialogue Group on Civil Military Relations held a meeting on September 28, 2009 at Lahore. Members of the Group have demanded that the Government should take immediate actions to resolve the unrest and deteriorating law and order situation in Balochistan. The Group held a comprehensive discussion on the prevailing governance scenario in the country. The Group believed that poor perceptions continue to prevail about the ability of the government to provide good governance for the country which is an essential basis for democracy. The democratic dispensations leading priority should be to improve governance and tackle pressing issues such as Balochistan. The Group also complimented the government and the Armed Forces for successful conduct of war against militants in the Malakand Division and a swift rehabilitation of IDPs. The Group underscored that public acceptance and support to military operations and close coordination between the civil and the military have been the defining features for the success of the operation. The Group expressed its concern on a growing public and media perception about increasing corruption in the country. An objective, non-partisan and across-the-board accountability mechanism needs to be instituted by the government urgently to ensure meaningful accountability. The continuity of the political and democratic process in Pakistan has suffered greatly in the past on allegations of corruption. The present government has an opportunity to institute an effective accountability mechanism to arrest that trend for the present and the future.

The Group also believed that the Parliament of Pakistan needs to play a more meaningful role. Parliamentary performance, especially in carrying effective oversight of the government, is essential for strengthening democracy. While lack of an acrimonious relationship between the government and the opposition is a sign of maturity, the opposition also needs to play its rightful role in leading Parliamentary agenda on issues of public concern.

The Group held its 21st sittings in Lahore to review the civil-military relations in the context of prevailing political scenario. Members of the Group endorsing the statement include Lt. Gen. (Retd.) Abdul Qadir Baloch, Former Governor Balochistan/Corps Commander Quetta, Lt.Gen. (Retd.) Asad Durrani, Former DG ISI/MI; Mr. Javed Jabbar, Former Senator & Federal Minister for Information & Media Development Lt. Gen. (Retd.) Moinuddin Haider, Former Governor Sindh; Mr. Mujib-ur-Rehman Shami, Editor-in-Chief, daily Pakistan,; Dr. Parvez Hassan, Partner, Hassan & Hassan Advocate Mr. Shafqat Mahmood, Former Senator and Minister; Mr. Shahid Hamid, Former Governor Punjab; Senator S. M. Zafar, Former Federal Minister; Lt. Gen. (Retd.) Talat Masood, Former Federal Secretary/Defence Analyst; Mr. Tasneem Noorani, Former Federal Secretary; Mr. Ahmed Bilal Meboob, Executive Director PILDAT and Ms. Aasiya Riaz, Joint Director PILDAT.
PILDAT Analyzes the Aghaz-e-Huqooq-e-Balochistan Package

On December 10, 2010, PILDAT has issued an analysis of the Aghaz-e-Huqooq-e-Balochistan package in the shape of a background paper. The paper highlights the need for the Parliamentary Committee on Constitutional Reforms, which has been considering constitutional amendments since June 2009, to accelerate its work and present an appropriate constitutional amendment bill without which a substantial part of the package will remain only a set of proposals.

The paper analyses that references to the deletion of the Police Order 2002 and the Balochistan Local Government Ordinance 2001 from the Sixth Schedule as being under consideration of the Parliamentary Committee on Constitutional Reforms that goes indirectly to the core of the real problem in Federal-Provincial relations. Law and order and local government are both provincial subjects. Why therefore should the Federation impose its views in these matters on the Provinces and then prevent them from making any changes in these laws? It shows, rather proves, that the Federation does not respect provincial autonomy even in matters that squarely fall within the powers of the Provinces. It is the mind-set of the high political and bureaucratic levels of the Federation that requires a fundamental change. The paper notes that one proposal that needs emphasis and implementation above all is the call for initiation of a political dialogue with all major stakeholders to bring them into mainstream politics.

The analysis, carried out by Mr. Shahid Hamid, Senior Advocate Supreme Court and former Governor Punjab, has been essentially prepared for a Special Sitting of the Dialogue Group on Civil-Military Relations on the Balochistan Issue that was held on December 08, 2009.

Constitution of Pakistan should Govern Civil-Military Relations in Pakistan

The Constitution of Pakistan should govern relations between different organs of the state as well as civil-military relations for a sustainable democracy in Pakistan, believed experts and participants at a PILDAT Briefing on Parliamentary Oversight of the Defence Sector: Case Studies from Indonesia and Turkey on January 14, 2010 at Islamabad.

Rule of law and good governance have to be the key by-products of a democratic order within which military finds little space to intervene in politics. The relationship between the civilian political set-up and the military must be guided by the Constitution of Pakistan and the Parliament and Parliamentary Committees must exercise their available powers to establish and exercise an effective and responsible control and oversight of the defence sector in Pakistan, it was concluded.

The Speakers at the briefing included Mr. Javed Jabbar, Former Senator & Federal Minister for Information & Media Development who presented his findings and analysis on the topic of Indonesian Civil-Military Relations: Lessons for Pakistan on Parliamentary Oversight of the Defence Sector. Mr. Jabbar was part of a recent study visit to Indonesia alongside Senator S. M. Zafar, Chairman Senate Standing Committee on Education, and Lt. Gen (Retd.) Moinuddin Haider, former Governor Sindh, alongside others, who also shared their views at the briefing session. Begum Ishrat Ashraf, MNA and Member National Assembly Standing Committee on Defence (NA-372-Punjab-I, PML-N); was part of another Study Visit to Turkey for members from the Parliamentary Committee on Defence, facilitated by PILDAT and presented her experiences and learning from the Study Visit to Turkey for the benefit of Parliamentarians. Mr. Faisal Karim Kundi, MNA and Deputy Speaker National Assembly of Pakistan chaired the session and shared his insights from the two study visits of which he was a part.

Civilian Control of Ministry of Defence and Parliamentary Oversight of Defence Sector Urged

PILDAT organised a Briefing Session on March 24, 2010 at Islamabad on The Role of Ministry of Defence in Pakistan, Parliamentarians and Defence experts believed that a Parliamentary Oversight of the Defence Sector and a Civilian Control of Ministry of Defence needed to be established in Pakistan for establishing a constitutional equation between the civil and the military. Democratically-elected political leadership of the country should not abdicate its responsibility of strategic and policy decision-making to the Military without a democratic ownership, believed experts. Dr. Azra Fazal Pechuho, MNA; Chairperson National Assembly Standing Committee on Defence who chaired the Briefing Session said that the Briefing provides an essential and necessary impetus for dialogue which is key for understanding of where we stand in the journey of democratization today, especially in terms of civil-military relations in Pakistan. She believed that now that Parliament is considering constitutional reforms to shift the balance of power from the President to the Prime Minister, the Prime Minister will have to carefully balance the civil-military relationship and the so-called “troika.” She supported firm and effective civilian control of defence policies and said that the Ministry of Defence should be relocated outside the Military’s General Headquarters from Rawalpindi to the Pak Secretariat alongside other federal ministries. She rejected calls for training or orientation of Parliamentarians in defence-related institutions and supported those military personnel, as is the practice in India, should be trained by Parliamentary institutes in Pakistan to understand the parliamentary systems and supremacy.

Key speakers at the briefing included Mr. Shahid Hamid, Senior Advocate Supreme Court, former Defence Minister and former Governor and Mr. Ayaz Amir, MNA, Member National Assembly Standing Committee on Defence. Members of the Parliamentary Committees on Defence, parliamentarians, academicians, and media representatives participated in the Briefing Session.

Greater detail of Defence Budget to improve Civil Military Relations in Pakistan.

PILDAT held a Briefing Session on Defence Budget and the Parliament on June 17, 2010 at Islamabad. What are the details of the defence budget of Pakistan in 2010-2011 and how should the Parliamentary Committees on Defence review the defence budget was explained in great detail and clarity by Mr. Nohman Ishtiak, a technical expert attached with the Ministry of Finance. Dr. Azra Fazal Pechuho, MNA, Chairperson National Assembly Standing Committee on Defence chaired the PILDAT briefing. Mr. Ishtiak presented a comparative perspective on details of the defence budgets made public by India and South Africa which highlighted the lack of details presented in Pakistan. Analysts such as Mr. Riaz Khokhar, Lt. Gen. (Retd.) Talat Masood and Dr. Gulfaraz Ahmad, who participated in the discussion alongside elected representatives, believed that Parliament required developing a better understanding of the defence details and providing policy input on a comprehensive national security policy plan.

Civil-Military Dialogue Group calls for constitution of two separate Judicial Commissions to investigate the assassination of Benazir Bhutto and the death of Nawab Akbar Bugti and affix responsibility

PILDAT Civil-Military Dialogue Group calls for constitution of two separate Judicial Commissions to investigate the assassination of Benazir Bhutto and the death of Nawab
Akbar Bugti and affix responsibility. The Group issued a statement which contains different points including the assassination of former Prime Minister Mohtarma Benazir Bhutto in Rawalpindi on 27th December 2007 and the earlier death of Nawab Akbar Bugti in August 2006 in a remote part of Balochistan became tragic turning points in the recent history of Pakistan. Members who endorsed the statement included: Lt. Gen. (Retd.) Abdul Qadir, MNA; former Governor Balochistan; Lt. Gen. (Retd.) Asad Durrani, former DG ISI, MI; former Ambassador of Pakistan; Dr. Hasan-Askari Rizvi, Defence and Political Analyst; Dr. Imran Ali, Professor of Economics, History and Business Policy, LUMS; Mr. Javed Jabbar, Former Senator & Federal Minister for Information & Media Development; Mr. Mujib ur Rehman Shami, former President, All Pakistan Newspapers Society (APNS); Mr. Rustam Shah Mohmand, former Federal Secretary; Mr. Sartaj Aziz, Former Minister for Finance/Foreign Affairs; Ms. Sherry Rehman, MNA, former Federal Minister; Lt. Gen. (Retd.) Talat Masood, Former Federal Secretary/Defence Analyst; Mr. Ahmed Bilal Mehboob, Executive Director PILDAT and Ms. Aasiya Riaz, Joint Director, PILDAT

Citizens Group on Electoral Process - CGEP

The Citizens Group on Electoral Process – CGEP, a non-partisan group comprising a number of well-known personalities from the media, legal profession, civil society and former members of the superior judiciary and armed forces, etc. was facilitated by PILDAT in December 2006, a year ahead of General Elections in Pakistan, in order to regularly monitor and examine the electoral process leading up to General Election. The CGEP worked from December 2007 to post General Elections held in February 2008 to timely identify communicate and offer solutions to rectify issues relating to the electoral processes.

PILDAT believed that a successful completion of the CGEP work will be to answer, in a systematic manner, the questions that remain about the desired electoral reforms in Pakistan and highlight the required electoral reforms for the benefit of the new government. During the period, CGEP moved towards consolidation of its electoral reform proposals and sharing those for the benefit of the policymakers.

Prime Minister Welcomes CGEP Electoral Reforms Proposals; supports early Preparation of Computerised Electoral Rolls.

The Citizens Group on Electoral Process called on the PM and the CEC on March 26, 2010 and urged for timely Electoral Reforms. The Prime Minister of Pakistan Syed Yusuf Raza Gilani welcomed the Electoral Reforms proposals presented to him by the delegation of the Citizens Group on Electoral Process – CGEP. The Prime Minister observed, “It is due to your contributions into political and electoral reforms and democracy strengthening that we are able to witness whatever form of democracy that exists in the country today.” he said lavishly praising the efforts of PILDAT and the CGEP while welcoming the Electoral Reform proposals. The Prime Minister assured the CGEP delegation of consideration of all electoral reform proposals and said that his government, contrary to the traditional view, is not striving for the longevity of its rule but for strengthening of institutions in Pakistan for a lasting democracy in the country. The Prime Minister concurred with the need for conducting an enquiry into the faulty Computerised Electoral Rolls 2006 that not only resulted in disenfranchisement of millions of voters but also into considerable monitory loss as well as loss of precious time.

The delegation of the CGEP separately called on Syed Yusuf Raza Gilani, Prime Minister of Pakistan, and Justice (Retd.) Hamid Ali Mirza, Chief Election Commissioner of Pakistan, and presented the CGEP proposals on required Electoral Reforms in Pakistan to the two.

The CGEP welcomed the Prime Minister’s decision for issuance of free CNICs to citizens as well as the acceleration in CNICs for women through the Benazir Income Support Programme. The Prime Minister especially concurred with the CGEP proposal of the preparation of fresh Computerized Electoral Rolls with voter’s picture with the help of NADRA using the CNICs and directed to encourage women to make their photo-CNIC. The Prime Minister approved the idea of “Compulsory Voting” as proposed by Mr. Javed Jabbar.

The CGEP, in another interactive session with Justice (Retd.) Hamid Ali Mirza, Chief Election Commissioner, presented its proposed Electoral Reforms. Mr. Ishtiaq Ahmed Khan, Secretary Election Commission shared the ECP Strategic Plan with the CGEP delegation for the CGEP review.

The CGEP members welcomed the new leadership of the Election Commission of Pakistan including the Secretary and the CEC and especially underscored the need for an effective use and display of the independence of the Election Commission under the new leadership. “The ECP has the powers in place to exercise its independence effectively,” urged the CGEP members highlighting that the ECP requires overcoming the deficit of trust in the institution that years of lack of independence of ECP has generated in citizens. The ECP Secretary, while answering various questions, said that the ECP was in the process of collaborating with NADRA to make accurate and up to date electoral rolls within the next 6 months. The CGEP delegation raised various core issues with the CEC including the scrutiny of the candidates, display of Electoral Rolls on the ECP website and of computerized electoral Rolls with pictures.

The members of the CGEP who comprised the delegation included Mr. Ahmed Bilal Mehoob, Executive Director PILDAT; Mr. Javed Jabbar, former Senator & Federal Minister; Lt. Gen. (Retd.) Moinuddin Haider, former Governor Sindh; former Federal Minister for Interior, Mr. Mujib-ur-Rehman Shami, Editor in Chief, Daily Pakistan; President APNS; Justice (Retd.) Nasira Iqbal, former President, Lahore High Court Bar Association, former Judge, Lahore High Court; Mr. Omar Khan Afridi, Federal Caretaker Minister for Interior; Mr. Saleem Safi, Columnist and Ms. Aasiya Riaz, Joint Director PILDAT.

Now is the time to institute Electoral Reforms: CGEP

Media and other stakeholders must play a crucial and much needed role in instituting electoral reforms in Pakistan at this stage and create an atmosphere in which the Government, the ECP and the Parliament move fast for the preparation of a good Voters’ List, said members of the Citizens Group on Electoral Reforms (CGEP) while sharing CGEP proposals on Electoral Reforms and Computerised Electoral Rolls at a Briefing held by PILDAT on April 26, 2010 at Lahore. Electoral Reforms require changes in laws, rules and practices and therefore meaningful reform can only be brought in at this stage, believed CGEP. The participants at the briefing offered many suggestions including public finance of political parties, a combination of proportional representation and first-past-the-post system through vote for political parties instead of candidates and setting of a minimum percentage of votes needed to win an election, etc.

Key members of CGEP, who outlined Electoral Reforms at the Briefing, included Mr. Shahid Hamid, former Governor Punjab; Mr. Mujib-ur-Rehman Shami, Editor-in-Chief Pakistan; Dr. Hasan-Askari Rizvi, Defence and Political Analyst; Justice (Retd.) Nasira Iqbal, former Judge Lahore.
High Court and Mr. Ahmed Bilal Mehboob, Executive Director PILDAT. Dr. Shabbir Cheema, Director Asia Pacific Governance Democracy Initiative, East West Centre, Hawaii, a noted expert on democracy and governance in Asia, also spoke at the Briefing. A large number of media representatives, analysts, talk-show hosts, anchors, reporters and columnists participated in the briefing and offered valuable proposals and feedback.

Time to institute Electoral Reforms is NOW

The Government, the Election Commission of Pakistan and the Parliament should act proactively for the preparation of a good Voters' List and required electoral reforms, PILDAT urged while sharing its proposals on Electoral Reforms at a media briefing on June 07, 2010 at Islamabad.

Outlining key Electoral Reform proposals prepared by the Citizens Group on Electoral Process (CGEP), Mr. Ahmed Bilal Mehboob said that three key reform proposals of CGEP have already been made part of the Constitution through the 18th Constitutional Amendment including the process of appointment of the Chief Election Commissioner, composition of the Election Commission and Caretaker Governments. The CGEP had proposed that the CEC should be appointed after a meaningful process of consultation with the leaders of all major political parties and groups represented in the National Assembly of Pakistan. After the 18th Constitutional Amendment, Article 213 has been amended and defines a process of consultation involving the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition who will “forward 3 names for the appointment of the CEC to a Parliamentary Committee for hearing and confirmation of any one person.” The CGEP had also proposed that the CEC and other members of the ECP do not have to be necessarily from the Judiciary. Retired Judges should not be appointed as CEC or a member of the Election Commission before the expiration of 3 years after he/she has ceased to hold the position of a judge of the Supreme or High Court. Article 207 (2) of the Constitution will need to be amended to implement this proposal. Mr. Ahmed Bilal Mehboob said that prior to the 18th Constitutional Amendment; the CGEP had proposed that since Provincial Election Commissioners only work as part-time commissioners with their chief responsibilities as judges in the High Court, an amendment is required to substitute the current ECP structure with 3-5 full-time Election Commissioners alongside the Chief Election Commissioner. The 18th Constitutional Amendment incorporates this proposal through which, in addition to the CEC, four (4) members from each Province are to be appointed to constitute the Election Commission. CGEP Electoral Reforms also include the need for an updated computerized Electoral Roll and enrollment as a Voter at the time of making of Computerised National Identification Cards (CNICs) using NADRA's expertise. CGEP has also proposed placing checks on the office of the President and the Governors from influencing the electoral process. The disclosure and declarations by the candidates should be made public before every election.

The Election Commission should compose of permanent members, the CGEP proposes while advocating reforms such as live posting of polling stations wise (progressive) voting results on the ECP website; an agreed Code of Conduct by political parties; strict compliance of laws by the ECP to control Government influence; setting up of a realistic ceiling on maximum election expenses and application of electoral rules and laws on all. The CGEP has also proposed a system of appointing Election Observers from amongst public officials by the ECP in every district to ensure compliance of electoral rules and laws and to report back to the ECP in time for action.
PILDAT Legislative Brief presents an Analysis of the NRO 2007

On August 31, 2009, PILDAT has issued a Legislative Brief analyzing the National Reconciliation Ordinance (NRO) 2007 to assist the parliamentarians to understand the context, objective and the issues relating to the NRO and to enhance awareness of the Citizens and Media on the subject.

The Legislative Brief recommends to the Members of Parliament to conduct a serious review of the NRO. The Standing Committees on Law, Justice and Human Rights should examine various sections of the NRO especially Sections 6 and 7 from the point of view of its conformance to various articles of the Constitution of Pakistan especially Article 25. The legislators should be mindful of the fact that the Ordinance is already challenged in the courts where the Ordinance will face judicial scrutiny. If the Ordinance does not pass the test of compatibility with the Constitution and Basic Human Rights enshrined in the Constitution, the judiciary may strike it down and the legislature may have to face public humiliation in that case. The Ordinance should withstand the demands of natural justice and fair play. It is very important that the detailed list of all the cases and intended beneficiaries of Sections 6 and 7 of the legislation should be made public and transparent.

Assessment of the Quality of Democracy in Pakistan

PILDAT formed a Democracy Assessment Group to carry out an objective assessment of the performance of democracy in Pakistan using an international framework. Activities under this strand during the reported period are as follows.

The PILDAT Democracy and Governance Panel that comprises eminent legal and political experts and opinion leaders from across the country have issued a set of proposals for Constitutional Amendments for the consideration of the Parliamentary Committee on Constitutional Reforms on August 03, 2009.

The Democracy and Governance Panel agreed that the focus of the Parliamentary Committee on Constitutional Reforms should be on repealing the 17th Constitutional Amendment in the first phase. The panel recommended that the Parliamentary Committee may undertake the constitutional amendments in two phases. In view of the fact that the two largest parties have already agreed in principle on repealing the 17th amendment except certain parts and a general consensus exists in the country on the subject, the 18th Constitutional Amendment Bill be introduced in the Parliament at the earliest focussing on repealing certain parts of the 17th Amendment. An effort should be made to pass the bill at the earliest. Simultaneously, the Committee should work on a 19th Constitutional Amendment Bill which should consist of all other required constitutional amendments. This bill should also be introduced in the Parliament as soon as the necessary consensus is reached on the contents of the bill. The Panel reviewed the 17th Amendment and proposed amendments in different clauses.

The members of the panel who deliberated on the issue in a meeting in their personal capacity include Mr. Babar Sattar, Advocate; Dr. Ijaz Shafi Gilani, Chairman Gallup Pakistan; Mr. Ilahi Bukhsh Soomro, former Speaker National Assembly of Pakistan; Mr. Javed Jabbar, former Senator and Federal Minister for Information and Media Development; Mr. Mujib ur Rehman Shami, Editor Daily

PILDAT Democracy & Governance Panel urges the establishment of a Judicial Appointment Commission to streamline Judicial Appointments

The PILDAT Democracy & Governance Panel has proposed that an urgent constitutional amendment be made to streamline the process of large number of expected judicial appointments in the country. The members of the panel who were part of the meeting on August 10, 2009 in Lahore were unanimous in their view that the large number of vacancies that had been created in the Superior Courts as a result of the July 31, 2009 judgment of the Supreme Court on the unconstitutional measures taken from November 3, 2007 onwards should be filled on the basis of the process envisaged by the Charter of Democracy signed on May 14, 2006. The Parliamentary Committee should therefore urgently consider and adopt amendments in Article 177 and 193 of the Constitution.

The members of the Panel who were part of the meeting included Justice (Retd.) Saeed-uz-Zaman Siddiqui, Former Chief Justice of Pakistan; Mr. Ilahi Bukhsh Soomro, former Speaker National Assembly of Pakistan; Mr. Shahid Hamid, Senior Advocate Supreme Court; former Governor of the Punjab; Mr. Sartaj Aziz, Vice Chancellor, Beaconhouse National University / former Federal Minister for Foreign Affairs / for Finance; Dr. Hasan-Askari Rizvi, Political Analyst; Mr. Mujib ur Rehman Shami, Editor Daily Pakistan; Dr. Tariq Hassan, Advocate Supreme Court; former Chairman SECP; Mr. Ahmed Bilal Mehboob, Executive Director and Ms. Aasiya Riaz, Joint Director PILDAT.

Status of FATA should be decided through wishes of the FATA people within 2 years

On August 18, 2009, the PILDAT Democracy & Governance Panel has proposed further constitutional amendments on the status of Federally Administered Tribal Areas (FATA) and the Federally Administered Northern Areas (FANA). Proposing recommendations for Constitutional Amendments to the Parliamentary Committee on FATA, the Panel has said that peace and good governance in the FATA require meaningful mainstreaming of these areas with the rest of Pakistan.

Democracy Assessment Group (DAG) Meets at PILDAT to Start Assessment of Democracy in Pakistan

held at PILDAT Offices on January 13, 2010.

The PILDAT initiative is an effort to make democracy deliver and work. The assessment process is a tool to promote democratic reform. It is not meant just to assess the Government alone but assess the entire society. How democratic is the country or society as a whole of which the government is a part.

The PILDAT Democracy Assessment initiative does not end at commentary or analysis. The process is directed at identifying and lobbying for reforms using the collective influence of the Democracy Assessment Group. The initiative seeks to open a dialogue with the government before the results are made public in order to hear their side of the story and incorporate it and establish their ownership on the proposed reforms.

The participants believed that a careful and objective exercise of democracy assessment was needed so as not to contribute to weakening of democracy in Pakistan. While assessment in itself is a positive introspective exercise that the country, state, government and the citizens can learn and benefit from, an objective account would require a framework suiting Pakistan's peculiar conditions.

She was nominated especially by the Prime Minister of Pakistan to present the Government's view on the framework for democracy assessment in Pakistan. Apart from her, Members of Parliament from leading political parties including PPPP, PML-N, PML, ANP, MQM and others

Poor Governance is the Greatest Threat to Democracy in Pakistan: PILDAT

PILDAT has identified 5 major potential threats to democracy in Pakistan on the International Democracy Day, September 15. Lack of Good Governance and Rule of Law, a historically weak understanding of the significance of continuing democratic process on the part of the Armed Forces, lack of internal democracy in Political Parties, ineffective Parliament and role of big money in politics are 5 major potential threats that can hamper the growth and stability of democracy in Pakistan. Political parties, Government and the media need to focus on these challenges in order to strengthen democracy in Pakistan.

Strengthening Parliamentary Budget Process

Parliamentary control over the purse strings is one of the most crucial powers of any legislature. PILDAT believes that the current Parliamentary Budget Process, in the National and Provincial Assemblies of Pakistan, which barely runs for around 2 weeks provides very little opportunity to the elected representatives to either shape or effectively review the budget. The process must be reformed to provide a role to the parliamentary standing committees in the budget process as meaningful input from the parliament to the Budget Process can come only through Committees. A number of initiatives in this regard were undertaken to assist Committees, details of which follow.

Parliamentary Committees must take charge of the Budget Process; hold pre-budget consultations

PILDAT organised a workshop on Parliamentary Committees and the Budget Process on November 05, 2009 in Islamabad specifically for the chairs, members and staff of the National Assembly Standing Committees. Chairs and members of the various standing committees, including the Finance Committee, reiterated that Parliamentary Committees need to take charge of the budget process and play an effective role during the budget cycle to give meaningful input into the federal budget. It was discussed that pre-budget public consultations need... to be organised by the Committees, especially the Finance Committee, starting in December 2009 in major cities of the country so that a set of comprehensive budget proposals can be presented to the Finance Ministry by April 2010 for inclusions in the budget process. Khawaja Muhammad Asif, MNA and former Federal Minister, and a member of the National Assembly Standing Committee on Finance of the National Assembly of Pakistan, was the keynote speaker at the workshop while Ms. Fauzia Wahab, MNA and Chairperson of the Standing Committee on Finance chaired the workshop. The workshop was organised as a part of the Parliamentary and Political Party Strengthening Project being executed by PILDAT in association with the Ottawa-based Parliamentary Centre with the support of Canadian Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade.

These declarations were made at the PILDAT workshop on Parliamentary Committees and the Budget Process organised specifically for the chairs, members and staff of the National Assembly Standing Committees on November 05, 2009 at Islamabad. The workshop was organised as a part of the Parliamentary and Political Party Strengthening Project being executed by PILDAT in association with the Ottawa-based Parliamentary Centre with the support of Canadian Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade.

Khawaja Muhammad Asif, MNA and former Federal Minister, and a member of the National Assembly Standing Committee on Finance of the National Assembly of Pakistan, was the keynote speaker at the workshop while Ms. Fauzia Wahab, MNA and Chairperson of the Standing Committee on Finance chaired the workshop.

Pre Budget Briefing Session allows Punjab MPAs to make contributions to the upcoming Budget

Punjab MPAs got a chance to make contributions into the upcoming annual budget of Punjab and the Annual Development Programme (ADP) through a Pre-Budget Briefing Session organized by PILDAT in association with the Provincial Assembly of the Punjab on January 21, 2010 at Lahore. Honourable Rana Muhammad Iqbal Khan, Speaker of the Punjab Assembly, inaugurated the Briefing Session while Honourable Rana Sanaullah Khan, Minister of Law and Parliamentary Affairs, Punjab, conducted the discussion and recommendations by the MPAs.

The objective of the PILDAT Pre-Budget Briefing was to provide an overview of the current budget process, the upcoming Budget and the Annual Development Programme (ADP) for the year 2010-2011 to enable Honourable MPAs to contribute more effectively during the planned Pre-Budget Session of the Provincial Assembly of the Punjab.

The speakers at the pre budget briefing session Honourable Ch. Zahir-ud-Din, Leader of the Opposition, Provincial Assembly of the Punjab; Mr. Tariq Mehmood Pasha, Secretary, Department of Finance, Government of the Punjab; Mr. Ubaid Rubbani Qureshi, Secretary, Planning and Development, Government of the Punjab. Over 200 MPAs and staff of the Provincial Assembly of Punjab and Ministry of Finance and Planning and Development Department actively participated in the pre-budget briefing session. PILDAT specially prepared and a circulated a briefing pack including Background Papers on the Annual Development Plan of the Punjab (ADP) 2010-2011 and the Provincial Budget Process. MPAs from various political parties presented their recommendations for inclusion in the budget which were recorded and are being compiled by PILDAT.

PILDAT Lauds the Government Initiative to Strengthen Parliament's Role in Budget Process; the Decision to Strengthen Parliament and Democracy

PILDAT has lauded the Government's decision to present Budget proposals to Parliamentary Committees by May this year to allow in-depth budget review and input by the Committees and in turn ensuring Parliamentary oversight and control over the budget process.

Terming the Cabinet's decision to begin the Parliamentary Budget Process in May this year as a historic initiative, PILDAT believed that the decision reflected the present government's commitment to strengthen Parliament and improve and strengthen the Parliamentary Budget Process; or Parliamentary Control of the Purse Strings which is one of the most crucial powers of any Parliament. The Budget is the most important economic policy tool of the Government and provides a comprehensive statement of the nation's priorities. As the representative of the people, Parliament is the appropriate place to ensure that the Budget best matches the nation's needs with available resources. Such an exercise demands detailed engagement of the Parliament with the Budget Process and the Government's decision to strengthen this role of the Parliament will go a long way in heralding democratic and Parliamentary reform.

PILDAT also noted that these reforms in the budget process enjoyed consensus of almost all political parties represented in the Parliament and it was now for these parties to take full advantage of the extended budget session and role of the Parliamentary Committees to assert their effective role in shaping the new budget.

participated as observers in the consultations alongside representatives of business, markets, trade associations, academics and the media.

Inputs in the Federal Budget should be made by Business, Media and Civil Society at this Stage: Syed Naveed Qamar

The right time for making inputs and giving proposals and recommendations in the Federal Budget 2010 is now when the budget is being finalized. All stakeholders including representatives of the business, media and civil society community need to play an active role to influence Federal Budget for a comprehensive budget. These views were shared by Syed Naveed Qamar, MNA, Federal Minister for Petroleum and former Finance Minister at the PILDAT Briefing for Business, media and civil society organizations on How to Influence the Budget in Pakistan on April 28, 2010 at Islamabad. He said that the Parliamentary Standing Committees need to play an effective role in the pre-budget process and hold public hearings on budget and share their recommendations with the Ministry of Finance ahead of finalization of budget.

Mr. Ivo Balinov, Senior Program Officer Parliamentary Development, Parliamentary Centre, Canada, gave an overview of the Canadian methodology of the budget process and Mr. Jesse Biddle, Senior Associate of the ARD from the United States of America said that the institution of parliament is such where public voices can be heard and acted upon.

Parliamentarians strongly demand Pre-Budget Session; Complain about an ineffective Role of Parliament in the Budget Process

Parliamentarians, across all political parties, including Ministers and State Ministers, demand a pre-budget session of the Parliament and complained that Parliament has a weak and ineffective role in Parliamentary budget process. Instead of sharing Budget Strategy Paper-I and II just with Cabinet and Parliamentary Committees on Finance, Parliament and all Parliamentary Committees should be briefed about these well in time. Members of Parliament expressed these views at a PILDAT Briefing Session on The New Budget Process in Pakistan: What Parliamentarians Should Know held on May 05, 2010 at Islamabad.

“Every year the Government promises to take Parliamentarians on board before the budget session but every year it does not honour its promise,” complained MPs. “Cabinet only merely approves the budget without much control over it, complained Mr. Azam Swati, the Federal Minister for Science and Technology, while others believed that while federal cabinet approves the budget there exists a huge gap between plans and allocations and the new budget process should improve that system.

Mr. Nohman Ishtiak, representative of the Ministry of Finance made a comprehensive presentation on the new budget management reform programme introduced by the Federal Government called the Medium-Term Budgetary Framework (MTBF). He explained that the upcoming Federal Budget will be based on the model known as “Medium-Term Budget Estimates by Service Delivery” which would present 1 year budget and 2 years projections for services (outputs) delivered by each Ministry / Division. The Federal Minister for Health, Makhdoom Shahabuddin, MNA and former Finance Minister, chaired the briefing session and conducted the Q&A session in the absence of Dr. Hafeez Shaikh, Advisor to the Prime Minister on Finance, who could not join the session. 48 MNAs and 15 Senators from the PPP, PML-N, PML, MQM and ANP including representatives from FATA participated in the PILDAT briefing including 5 Federal Ministers and 3 Ministers of State.
PILDAT holds Exclusive Briefing for Parliamentarians on Analysis of the Federal Budget 2010-2011

PILDAT held an exclusive briefing for Parliamentarians on Analysis of the Federal Budget 2010-2011 on June 08, 2010 at Islamabad. Dr. Ashfaque H. Khan, Dean & Professor, National University of Science and Technology (NUST) Business School, Islamabad presented the budget analysis and answered questions of a diverse group of MPs belonging to different political parties and provinces.

The objective behind PILDAT briefing was to provide Parliamentarians with a concise, succinct and objective overview of the Budget 2010-2011 to assist them in understanding the budget and to make the budget debate and budget scrutiny by Parliament more meaningful. Dr. Ashfaque H. Khan said that this budget can be termed as stabilization Budget with human face and reform agenda where revenue target is ambitious but achievable. He said that economic team of Ministry of Finance and Economic Affairs would require constant support of provincial governments and Prime Minister in achieving federal budget targets. He said that best relief to poor can only be provided through reduction in inflation and not subsidies.

Defining the Budget, Dr. Khan said that budget is not only an account of revenue and expenditure of the Government but it is also a policy instrument (Fiscal Policy) to address economic challenges, which has been prepared in the background of domestic and external economic challenges.

Our domestic economic challenges are declining investment in the country that slows the economic growth and, eventually, raising the unemployment as well as poverty. Highlighting the objectives of the Federal Budget 2010-2011, Dr. Khan said that this budget is prepared to protect the economic recovery, to reduce the budget and current account deficits, reducing inflation, bringing debt situation under control, protecting the poor and fixed income group, reforming public sector enterprises (PSEs), employment generation, making Pakistan attractive for foreign investment and energy and food security.

Explaining how the federal Budget is going to achieve the objectives, Dr. Khan said in order to restore macroeconomic stability, the budget deficit is targeted at 4% of GDP – down from 5.1% in 2009-10, which may reduce the borrowing requirements of the Government that means private sector will get more credit and ease pressure on interest rate. State Bank of Pakistan may be able to reduce discount rate that may lead to decline the capital cost and that may encourage private sector to invest more, thus investment may rise.

Legislative Forums

The Holders of Public Offices (Accountability) Bill termed as Politically Suicidal for Politicians; a Careful, Detailed and Urgent Review Stressed

Speakers and subject specialists at the PILDAT Legislative Forum demanded a careful, detailed and urgent review of the Holders of Public Offices (Accountability Bill 2009) which is currently at the committee stage in the National Assembly. PILDAT Legislative Forum on Federal Value Added Tax Bill 2010 (VAT 2010)

While imposition of the Value Added Tax in Pakistan may appear to be a fait accompli in relation to Pakistan’s agreement with the IMF, the estimated VAT benefits are highly exaggerated. The imposition of the VAT is subject to Parliamentary approvals which can with hold the imposition of the VAT in view of lack of preparedness both at the societal level as well as the FBR, believed speakers at the PILDAT Legislative Forum on the Federal Value Added Tax Bill 2010 (VAT 2010) on May 13, 2010 at Islamabad.

Sales Tax already implemented in Pakistan is in VAT-mode and focus should have been on removing exemptions and loopholes in sales tax to increase tax revenue instead of introduction of VAT, believed experts. Parliamentarians believed that the Government should have tabled its Letter of Intent and agreement with the IMF in the Parliament for discussion and approval by the Parliament beforehand. Senator Muhammad Ishaq Dar, Chairman Senate Standing Committee on Industries and Productions and former Finance Minister, Mr. Abrar Ahmed Khan; Member Sales Tax/Value Added Tax FBR and Mr. Abdullah Yusuf, Former Secretary and Chairman FBR, reviewed the bill at the PILDAT Legislative Forum in the presence of Members of Parliament, business community and media representatives as participants.

The Youth Parliament Pakistan

The Youth Parliament Pakistan is a platform for Pakistani Youth patterned after the National Assembly of Pakistan. The Youth Parliament membership is selected from across the country for a one-year term.

PILDAT formed the first-ever Youth Parliament of Pakistan in the year 2007. After the successful completion of the first and second term of Youth Parliament, PILDAT launched the third term in 2009.

Establishment and facilitation of the Youth Parliament is part of PILDAT’s focus on Youth in the country and Youth’s awareness education and training in the norms of politics and democracy in the country. PILDAT strongly feels that sustainable democracy and the sustainability of sound democratic institutions in Pakistan is not possible without youth’s involvement in the democratic and political process even if this involvement is simply as a citizen or voter.

The Youth Parliament Pakistan has its own 2-Party system, the Leader of the House and the Leader of the Opposition, a Youth Cabinet, a Shadow Cabinet and Parliamentary Committees.

The second Youth Parliament consisted of 62 members from across Pakistan. Gender profile of the Youth Parliament Pakistan 2008-2009 represented 80% Male and 20% Female on open merit. MYPs engaged in debate on topics ranging from treatment of Pakistani students in Britain, to the trial of former President General Pervez Musharraf, dialogue versus military action on containing militancy; Education Policy and Media Policy, etc.

Shaukat Tarin to make him the Finance Minister.

Welcoming the Youth Parliament members Prime Minister Gilani said that he has both been a seasoned parliamentarian and a former Speaker and was happy to address the Youth Parliament in both the capacities in addition to his office as Prime Minister. The Youth Prime Minister Mr. Ahmed Ali Babar congratulated the President on the huge achievement of the government to have managed the rehabilitation of IDPs in record time. “It is a gigantic task and as Pakistanis we are truly proud to have not only absorbed the displacement of such a huge number of people but have managed an unprecedented rehabilitation process for which the state and government of Pakistan truly deserve credit,” he said. “We believe youth is the custodian of Pakistan’s future; we are promoting youth in our party; the youngest-ever Deputy Speaker of the National Assembly is from the PPP and I am glad to be part of a journey with you to secure the future of Pakistan,” he said while addressing the delegation. “My children are one with the youth of this country and will have to go through the greatest test of democracy when they have to go to ask for a vote” he said responding to a question about whether the Bhutto-Zardari children would be living in Pakistan and would like to join Youth Parliament. “Bhutto gave the asset of vote to every person rich or poor in this country which is the true essence of democracy; asking people to vote for you is the greatest reality-check and the real beauty of democracy,” he said. “Given the Bhutto family history of martyrdom in the line of political and democratic duty to the country, allowing your only son to take up the post of party’s co-chairperson needs a heart,” he said, adding that having a 20-year old co-chairman of party also meant that the party was thinking of the future and investing greatly in the youth’s potential.

misconstrued and faulty and which should be realistically evaluated. Insurgents in Pakistan are ‘fasadi, not ‘jehadis’ and there can be no dialogue with them, said the Governor.
